Project: Lease Accounting Standard (ASC 842) implementation

“I’ve used RVMC on multiple occasions, and Thomas has become my go-to resource on technical issues. I get quality work from the experts at Re-Vision - they understand the needs of financial executives and get the job done. I especially appreciate that they primarily work independently of my staff, which further enhances value and lowers overall cost.”

Howard Allred; Chief Financial Officer at Yakima Choice Hops

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/howardallred>

“I can highly recommend Thomas. Great work product at a very reasonable price.”

Joel Hron; Chief Technology Officer at ThoughtTrace

Project: SOC Compliance Training and Support

“Great experience working with Thomas and his company. Very professional and thorough in everything we did together.”

Richard Stevenson, CPA, CIPM; Manager at Moss Adams
